PRIVACY POLICY

Last Updated: 02-05-2026

Calfes Ventures Int'l Limited ("Calfes", "we", "our", or "us") respects your privacy and is committed to protecting personal data handled in connection with the Calfes Wallet application and related services.

This Privacy Policy outlines how we collect, use, store and disclose personal data in the course of providing our services as a non-custodial digital asset wallet that supports blockchain-based assets (our "Services"). and the measures we have in place to ensure the confidentiality, integrity and security of your personal data.

This Privacy Policy applies to information collected through our application, website, subdomains, platforms, and other channels related to our Services. By accessing these platforms, you confirm that you have read, understood, and agree to the collection, use, processing, and disclosure of your personal data as described in this Privacy Policy.

By accessing our platforms, using our Services or contacting us directly, you acknowledge that you have read and understood this Privacy Policy and agree to its terms. If you do not agree to this Privacy Policy, You should not engage with our platforms or use our Services. We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time, and your continued use of the platforms or our Services after we post the changes that do not significantly affect the use or disclosure of your personal data will constitute acceptance of those changes. If we make material changes that do affect how your personal data is used or disclosed, we will notify you via a notice on our website to ensure you are informed before such changes take effect.

1. ABOUT CALFES (WHO WE ARE AND HOW TO CONTACT US)

Calfes provides a non-custodial digital asset wallet that enables users to interact with supported blockchain-based assets.

As a non-custodial platform, Calfes does not store or access user private keys, seed phrases, or digital assets.

In the event that Calfes obtains your personal data, Calfes is a data controller and responsible for your personal data.

We have appointed an officer who is responsible for overseeing questions relating to this Privacy Policy. If you have any questions about this Privacy Policy, please contact [fes.caleb@gmail.com]

2. INFORMATION WE COLLECT

We collect information when you interact with us, such as when you sign up or log into our application, use our other platforms, request our Services, subscribe to our communications, participate in a survey or complete a complaint or inquiry. In the course of delivering our Services, we may also collect additional information necessary for Service delivery.

The personal data we collect may include:

Calfes Ventures International Limited | Simple Crypto. Full Control

- Device information (device type, operating system, app version)
- Log and usage data, our servers automatically collect technical data or record information about how you access our Services, including links you have clicked on, the length of visit on certain pages, unique device identifier, log-in information, location and other device details;

We will only use your personal data for the stated purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another purpose and that purpose is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us at [fes.caleb@gmail.com]

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

6. DO WE SHARE THE INFORMATION WE COLLECT WITH THIRD PARTIES?

We may engage trusted third-party service providers to support the delivery of our Services, including but not limited to website hosting, server maintenance, data storage and management, email communication, analytics, and customer support. Where necessary, we may share your personal data and, in some cases, non-personal data with these service providers to enable them to perform such tasks on our behalf.

For analytics and Service improvement, we may share anonymised or aggregated usage data, such as IP addresses or browser types, with third-party analytics partners. This information may be used to help us understand user behaviour, optimise our digital platforms, and evaluate Service performance. These analytics partners may use such usage data to assess trends such as location, connection speed, device type, and usage patterns.

In addition to sharing your personal data or non-personal data with third-party service providers as stated above, we may disclose your personal data or non-personal data where we believe it is necessary or appropriate to:

- a. comply with applicable laws, regulations, or legal processes (such as court orders or subpoenas);
- b. respond to lawful requests from government or law enforcement agencies;
- c. protect the rights, property, or safety of Calfes, our users, our personnel, or others; or
- d. detect, investigate, and help prevent fraud or other illegal activity.

We require all third parties with whom we share your personal data to respect its confidentiality and to process it in accordance with data protection laws. They are not permitted to use your personal data for their own purposes and are only authorised to process it as instructed by Calfes and solely for specified and legitimate purposes.

6. DATA SECURITY

We take appropriate technical, organisational and security measures to protect your personal data. These measures include physical safeguards, secure electronic systems, access controls, and managerial procedures designed to prevent unauthorised access, modification, or disclosure. Our information security framework is supported by policies, standards, and processes, and we require our staff and third-party providers with access to confidential information to comply with strict confidentiality and security obligations.

7. COOKIES (FOR WEBSITE)

Calfes uses Cookies to identify the areas of our platforms that you have visited. We use cookies to enhance the performance and functionality of our platforms but are non-essential to the use of our platforms.

In all cases in which we use cookies, we will not collect personal data or use information gathered for tracking purposes except with your permission. Most web browsers can be set to disable the use of cookies. However, if you disable cookies, you may not be able to access functionality on our platforms correctly or at all. We never store personal data in Cookies.

8. DATA SUBJECT RIGHTS
